SCENTSATIONAL

Issey Miyake Parfums has released its annual summer scent, and “L’Eau d’Issey” is just right for the bride. The fresh floral fragrance has bright, fruity undertones that make it ideal for both morning and evening. The bottle features architectural lines and just a sprinkling of color, and the limited-edition scent makes a lovely gift for the bridesmaids as well. $62; available at Bloomingdale’s and isseymiyakeparfums.com.

UNVEILED Claire Pettibone just launched an ethereal line of wedding veils that complement multiple bridal styles as well as her own romantic dress designs. The intricate embroidery, delicate appliques, and sheerest of gossamer fabrics are all classic Pettibone, and the sweet floral themes (designs include “Jasmine,” “Bouquet,” “Vintage Bloom,” and “Baby’s Breath”) are delightfully light. Prices range from $250-1,600; clairepettibone.com, 310.360.6268.

SAVE THE DATE The standard cake server gets promoted to heirloom with the personalized touch of Not Just Any Old Day. An elegant server made of solid sterling silver is engraved with a miniature calendar upon which your wedding date is marked with a Swarovski crystal. The stone comes in your choice of 12 different colors, and the style of the server is beautifully timeless. $249; notjustanyoldday.com, 818.359.5948.

BEACHY KEEN

Scealu of South Shore has created a collection of handcrafted ornaments that lend themselves beautifully as seaside wedding favors. Scallop shells, pink sea urchins, five-fingered starfish, and white mushroom coral are selected by hand from Cape Cod bay, then attached to a decorative wire hook and finished with ribbon. All but the starfish are sprinkled with shattered glass for sparkle, then paired with customized cards with your choice of four wax seals. Coordinating menu and table cards are available, and the ornaments work swimmingly as décor elements as well. Pricing starts at $7 per ornament for a minimum order of 24 pieces, and includes customized packaging; scealu.com, 781.248.0556.
